SPEAKING PRACTICE 1

(Juan Jose, Valentino and Shirka)

A: Good afternoon! I am Valentino, the operations manager.

B: Hi I am Juanjo, i'am IT support technician.

C: Hello, I'm the chief accountant of the company. Nice to meet you both.

B: Seven out of ten laptops are working slow, why not we buy new laptops?

A: If that is the problem you could replace them with high tech laptops.

A: But how your budget isn´t enough, you shall buy tablets.

B: Those tablet computers can't run our software, we could buy some computers now and more the next month?

C: I have some good news for you! The local government will give our company €10,000 for IT improvements. The money will arrive next month.

C: My proposal is that we wait for one month until the money arrives and then we'll see what we need to improve or buy.

A: Let's do that then.

B:I think that is a good suggestion, that will work, that's all for now. Good afternoon guys!

C: Bye bye!

A: See you later!
